

Continuing Education – Presentation Synopsis

“The New ADA / ABA Guidelines – from the U.S. Access Board

Initial presentation provided by Mr. Dave Yanchulis – Coordinator of Public Affairs
during the National ADA Symposium
21 June 2010 / Denver, Colorado

Dallas AIA Continuing Education Seminar #091110

Presented By Fred D. Cawyer AIA
Architect, Interior Designer & Registered Accessibility Specialist

Session Presentation Title – “The New ADA / ABA Guidelines – from the United States Access Board”

Timeline - One and one-half Hours of Continuing Education Credits

Seminar Goal & Objectives:

- ▶ How life will change under the new proposed Guidelines - A general review of the proposed changes to the Americans With Disabilities Act (ADA) Guidelines (1st issued for public comment in July 2004); and, the possible compliance ramifications to the current Texas Accessibility Standards (TAS)
- ▶ Specific review of new accessibility Guidelines – Structure & Format and Major Changes

File: Presentation Synopsis – New ADA-ABA.doc